East Sussex National Hotel | 26 January 2023

Come and join us for a busy day of speed networking and discussions with colleagues and new faces in the sector. If you want to reserve your slot, contact us today.

This is a free event. This nursery agenda will allow providers to meet with key suppliers in face to face meetings during the day to discuss their requirements and see if they can do business together.

The background of the poster is a photograph of a large group of people in formal attire seated at tables in a restaurant or event space. The lighting is dim, with warm candlelight visible. A large white circle is overlaid on the top center of the image, containing the event title and hashtag. The main text is in white and yellow, with a dark grey bar at the bottom containing the date and location.
